Wants to Be Secretary of State.

Col. J. Stoddard Johnston, of Louisville, formerly of this city, has announced himself a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Secretary of State, but says, however, that he has neither time nor money to make a canvass of the State. As several other gentlemen who want the same position seem to have both, are allowing no grass to grow under their feet, and offices do not chase people down now a day, the Colonel will hardly get there if he sits down in Louisville and expects the office to come to him.

Sails February 16th.

Rev. George Darsie sails from New York February 16th on the steamer "Normannia" of the Hamburg-America Packet Company. His party will number thirty and will include seven ministers of different denominations. Three or four whole families, including ladies, will be along. The members of the party have been carefully chosen. The Roundabout expects to hear from him several times while he is gone.

It's a Mistake

To neglect caring for a cough or cold Every time you cough you increase the trouble and soon an inflammation is started that in a short time is difficult to control. Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure has such a magic effect upon a cough, allaying all irritation so quickly, that every person in the land should always have a bottle of this wonderful medicine on hand to begin taking at once upon the first appearance of a cold. It costs only 25c and 50c a bottle at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store.

WANTED—A good cook. Room and fuel furnished. Apply at once to Fell From a Trestle.

Mr. Ben Robinson, janitor at the Custom House, who lives down the L. & N. railroad near the old Judge Distillery, was coming into town early Wednesday morning and in crossing the trestle just beyond the residence of Mr. R. C. Nicol, he slipped on the icy ties and fell to the ground below, a distance of about eighteen feet, breaking three ribs and bruising himself so severely that he has since been confined to bed.

McClure's great cut sale positively closes Wednesday. Better not wait or you will lose a bargain.

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, head-aches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.
